 3. How was God's holiness demonstrated at the Passover? His mercy?
 4. What do you think the psalmist means when he says that "lovingkindness and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other" (Psalm 85:10)? How, or where do these things meet?
 5. Revelation 5 describes a sealed book—the book which allows the consummation of history and the judgments of God to begin—and a thorough search for someone worthy to open it. Only one is found—a worthy One, who's described as a Lion and a Lamb. Under which description does He break the seals and open the book? What do you think is the significance of all this?
 6. How has the study of Passover helped you to more appreciate what Jesus has done on your behalf?
