Read Leviticus 23:24; Numbers 10:1-10; Matthew 24:32-33; Ezekiel 36:24 and 37:21-28; Jeremiah 24:6-7 and 29:14; Hosea 9:11-15; 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17; and 1 Corinthians 15:51-52

1. According to Numbers 10:1-10, what were the trumpets used for in ancient Israel?
2. Do you believe that the birth of Israel as a nation in 1948 is a significant sign that the coming of Jesus Christ is close at hand? Why, or why not?

What is the significance of Matthew 24:32-33?

3. How do we know that Israel's restoration (after the Babylonian captivity) was not the final restoration of which the prophets spoke?
4. Our guide in Israel, Amir Tsarfati, believes that the two trumpets mentioned in Numbers 10:2 are related to the two significant witnesses God has established on this earth: Israel, and the Church (Cf. Isaiah 43:10; Acts 1:8). Do you agree in general with this interpretation? Why, or why not?
5. How will the gathering of the church in the end times be announced? (See 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17.)
6. Do you think Christians should be more attentive to Bible prophecy? Why, or why not?

Do you ever talk with friends or acquaintances about prophecy? How could this give you greater opportunities to witness?
