

God's Heart for the Lost

November 14-15, 2009 | Pastors Scott Nelson & Ken Engelking

Sharing Challenges 1. Pray. 2. Invite. 3. Talk. 4. Give Jesus the credit. 5. Pray then and there for a friend. 6. Share with two people why Jesus is significant to you and your faith.

God's Heart for the Lost

November 14-15, 2009 | Pastors Scott Nelson & Ken Engelking

Sharing Challenges 1. Pray. 2. Invite. 3. Talk. 4. Give Jesus the credit. 5. Pray then and there for a friend. 6. Share with two people why Jesus is significant to you and your faith.

Community Group Questions

Read 1 Timothy 2:3-6; 2 Peter 3:9; Acts 17:26-27; Titus 2:11-14, and Luke 15:1-10.

1. Having read the above Scriptures, how would you characterize God's heart for the lost?
 2. What does it mean that God is not willing or does not wish that any should perish? How has God made Himself "available" or "accessible" to human beings?
 3. The Scriptures tell us that there is only one God and one mediator between God and man; how does this message conflict with our present cultural assumptions?
 4. Have you ever gotten lost? How were you found? How did it feel?
 5. How does knowing that Jesus came to seek and save the lost affect the way you view the lost?
 6. What can we do right now for the lost among us? Identify the lost in your circle of influence and plan to put your faith into action as the opportunity presents itself.
-

Community Group Questions

Read 1 Timothy 2:3-6; 2 Peter 3:9; Acts 17:26-27; Titus 2:11-14, and Luke 15:1-10.

1. Having read the above Scriptures, how would you characterize God's heart for the lost?
 2. What does it mean that God is not willing or does not wish that any should perish? How has God made Himself "available" or "accessible" to human beings?
 3. The Scriptures tell us that there is only one God and one mediator between God and man; how does this message conflict with our present cultural assumptions?
 4. Have you ever gotten lost? How were you found? How did it feel?
 5. How does knowing that Jesus came to seek and save the lost affect the way you view the lost?
 6. What can we do right now for the lost among us? Identify the lost in your circle of influence and plan to put your faith into action as the opportunity presents itself.
-