

Let the Redeemed of the Lord Say So!

---

November 28-29, 2009 | Pastor Scott Nelson | Psalm 107:1-43

Let the Redeemed of the Lord Say So!

---

November 28-29, 2009 | Pastor Scott Nelson | Psalm 107:1-43

---

Community Group Questions

---

Read Psalm 107:1-43.

1. What four difficult conditions or trials does the psalmist describe in this psalm?
  2. How does Jesus answer each of these conditions?
  3. Do any of these situations aptly describe where you once were spiritually? How, or under what circumstances, did the Lord deliver you?
  4. How would you define or describe God's providence (see Psalm 107:33-42; Acts 17:26-28; Ecclesiastes 7:14, 11:5-6; and Job 12:7-25)?
  5. Why is it important that the redeemed of the Lord say so?
  6. Take time in your group to give thanks for specific things the Lord has done for you—especially those situations in which He has given you “beauty for ashes.”
-

Community Group Questions

---

Read Psalm 107:1-43.

1. What four difficult conditions or trials does the psalmist describe in this psalm?
  2. How does Jesus answer each of these conditions?
  3. Do any of these situations aptly describe where you once were spiritually? How, or under what circumstances, did the Lord deliver you?
  4. How would you define or describe God's providence (see Psalm 107:33-42; Acts 17:26-28; Ecclesiastes 7:14, 11:5-6; and Job 12:7-25)?
  5. Why is it important that the redeemed of the Lord say so?
  6. Take time in your group to give thanks for specific things the Lord has done for you—especially those situations in which He has given you “beauty for ashes.”
-