

Why We Aren't Ashamed!

---

October 24-25, 2009 | Pastor Scott Nelson | Romans 1:16-17

Sharing Challenges 1. Pray. 2. Invite. 3. Talk. 4. Give Jesus the credit. 5. This week's challenge is: Pray then and there for a friend.

---

Why We Aren't Ashamed!

---

October 24-25, 2009 | Pastor Scott Nelson | Romans 1:16-17

Sharing Challenges 1. Pray. 2. Invite. 3. Talk. 4. Give Jesus the credit. 5. This week's challenge is: Pray then and there for a friend.

---

Community Group Questions

---

Read Romans 1:16-17, 2 Timothy 1:7-8 and 12, and 1 Corinthians 1:18-25

1. Why do you think some Christians are ashamed of the gospel?

Have you ever been intimidated when an opportunity to share the gospel presented itself? Why do you think this happened?

2. When Christians were threatened in Jerusalem, what did they request from God (Acts 4:29-31)? Have you ever asked God for this? Describe the situation.
3. Read Acts 4:8-13. Why did the authorities observe such confidence in Peter and John?

Read further in this passage. How did the early Christians put their difficult circumstances in the proper context and come to understand that opposition is inevitable?

4. Give at least three reasons why you are not ashamed of the gospel.

Do you think our present culture presents challenges to the spread of the gospel? If so, what are some of these challenges?

5. Pray for one another that you will boldly share the gospel.
-

Community Group Questions

---

Read Romans 1:16-17, 2 Timothy 1:7-8 and 12, and 1 Corinthians 1:18-25

1. Why do you think some Christians are ashamed of the gospel?

Have you ever been intimidated when an opportunity to share the gospel presented itself? Why do you think this happened?

2. When Christians were threatened in Jerusalem, what did they request from God (Acts 4:29-31)? Have you ever asked God for this? Describe the situation.
3. Read Acts 4:8-13. Why did the authorities observe such confidence in Peter and John?

Read further in this passage. How did the early Christians put their difficult circumstances in the proper context and come to understand that opposition is inevitable?

4. Give at least three reasons why you are not ashamed of the gospel.

Do you think our present culture presents challenges to the spread of the gospel? If so, what are some of these challenges?

5. Pray for one another that you will boldly share the gospel.
-