for the Week of April 11-12, 2009 | Our Living Hope | 1 Peter 1:3

1. What do you hope for in life?
2. Do you believe that you could find lasting satisfaction and fulfillment if certain external circumstances were obtained (i.e., if you had a full retirement account, a nice home all paid for, a successful business, good health, the perfect marriage, loyal friends)? Why, or why not?
3. What was Solomon's verdict after experiencing the "good life"?
4. Why do you think the world is longing for something in which to hope?
5. Do you ever hear politicians or world leaders even occasionally pointing to a source of hope that is beyond anything this world could offer? Where, or to what do they most often point as a source for hope?
6. How did the resurrection of Jesus Christ bring hope into this world? How did it change everything for the disciples and the early Church?
7. How should we live in the light of the resurrection of Jesus Christ?
